

RELIGIOUS STUDIES MINOR

Requirements

Students wishing to minor in Religious Studies either out of general interest in the subject of religion and theology or in order to complement their major in another field are required to take a minimum of six courses in the department. These six courses must meet the following requirements:

- A minimum of two courses must be taken at the 200-level or above, at least one of which must be a seminar.
- They must include at least two religious traditions covered by the Department (Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism).*
- They must draw from three of the following four areas: ethics, sacred text, theology, and world religions.*

*For courses that satisfy each area, see below (and see Religious Studies website (<https://www.holycross.edu/academics/programs/religious-studies/requirements/>) for updates to these lists).
